MEET THE MEMBER: MOTHER ROAD ANTIQUE MALL

Mother Road Antique Mall was opened in June 2016 by Virginia Brown who has over 50 years of experience in the antique business. Located on the Historic Route 66 Downtown Carlinville Square, they have a wide variety of antiques, collectables, primitives, glassware, and other one-of-a-kind items. Within the antique mall, they host several vendors from the area with specialty items in their booths, including Dixie Bell paints, and various handmade items.

MARKET DAYS

In 2017, a group of retail business owners from Downtown Carlinville and within the community, created a once-a-month event centered on the Historic Carlinville Square, now known as Market Days. Over the years, Market Days has helped boost Carlinville tourism and bring shoppers in from other counties. A large variety of vendors and farmers, combined with the small hometown atmosphere, have made Market Days a great success for our local economy.

Market Days is on the first Saturday of the month, April through November. If you are interested in becoming or returning as a vendor, or are a local farmer/individual that would like to participate by selling plants, produce, or food, please contact:
